

Gregorio Saichin

Head of Emerging Markets & High Yield

Gregorio Saichin is Head of Emerging Markets & High Yield. He is also a Senior Portfolio Manager responsible for all dedicated emerging markets bond funds managed by Pioneer Investments from its Dublin investment centre. He has held this role since January 2000.

Gregorio has worked on emerging markets throughout his career. His area of expertise has expanded since 2000 to cover the sub-investment grade universe, with the advent of European High Yield as an asset class. Gregorio has been a cross-over investor for the Emerging Markets funds and a dedicated one for the Euro Strategic Bond portfolio in global high yield ever since.

Gregorio joined Pioneer Investments in 2000 from Deutsche Morgan Grenfell in London where he had been working in emerging markets fixed income sales. Before this, he worked in the same field with Chemical Bank for three years. Gregorio began his career as a corporate banker with Citibank N.A.'s international division in Mexico upon completion of his MBA in 1988.
