

Hugh Prendergast

Head of Strategic Product and Marketing, Western Europe and International Senior Vice President

Hugh Prendergast leads the Strategic Product and Marketing team for Western Europe and International at Pioneer Investments. He is responsible for managing the functions of marketing and product development and research. Hugh is a regular speaker at conferences and in the media.

Hugh has worked in the investment industry since 1995. Prior to his current role, he has led the Investment Communication function in Pioneer Investments. Before joining Pioneer Investments in 2001, Hugh worked as both a stock broker to institutional clients and as a financial journalist. Based in Milan he was the Italy correspondent for a global financial news agency, AFX News. His work has been published in a wide range of international newspapers and media. He held the position of head of equity sales, with Banca Commerciale Italiana in London. He also worked with the Intersim brokerage arm of the San Paolo banking group in Milan. Hugh holds a Master's degree from University College Dublin.