

Mats Langensjö

Head of Institutional Business, Nordic Region

Mats Langensjö is Head of Institutional Business, Nordic Region at Pioneer Investments. Mats' appointment signalled Pioneer Investments' intention to become a major force in the important Nordic institutional markets. Among his responsibilities is the establishment of an office in Stockholm.

Before joining Pioneer Investments, Mats was Managing Director of Aon Consulting in Stockholm, a business he established when he joined Aon in 2004. Prior to joining Aon, Mats was Executive Director and Client Advisor at Goldman Sachs Investment Management in London for three years, with responsibility for the Nordic region. Before this, he was Managing Director of Wassum Investment Consulting and Head of Investment Consulting and Risk Financing Group in the Nordic region at William M. Mercer in Stockholm. In total, he has almost 15 years' experience in the institutional market.

Previously, Mats worked as Financial Advisor at Spardabanken (Swedbank) and Östgöta Enskilda Bank and attended the trainee program at Skandia's Finance School in Uppsala. He is a graduate in Business Law and Economics from Linköping University and studied Finance in the Stockholm School of Economics. Mats is also a member of The Swedish Association of Financial Analysts.
