

Riccardo Cavo

Head of European Long/Short Strategies

Riccardo Cavo is the Head of European Long/Short Strategies at Pioneer Alternative Investments.

Prior to joining Pioneer Alternative Investments, Riccardo was Head of Equities at Pioneer Investments which encompassed European, Global and Small Cap European equity funds, a role he assumed in 2001 following three years as Head of the European Equity team.

After more than ten years with UniCredito's asset management division, Riccardo moved to Dublin with Pioneer Investments in July 1998, when the front office investment activities of the Group were first relocated. Prior to this, he had been Head of European Equity for CreditRolo Gestioni (now Pioneer Investments) since 1995 having started out as a European equity Portfolio Manager in 1989 (Gesticredit at that time).

Following his graduation from Bocconi University in Milan, Riccardo joined Credito Italiano's investment management company as an analyst for European equity.
